Your task:

For each homophone pair, draw a picture to show what each word means or write what they mean.

You can then put the words into sentences.

You can do this on the year 3 blog on Purple Mash or send a photo of your work to admin@surreystreetprimary.com

Homophones are words which sound the same but are spelt differently and have different meanings.

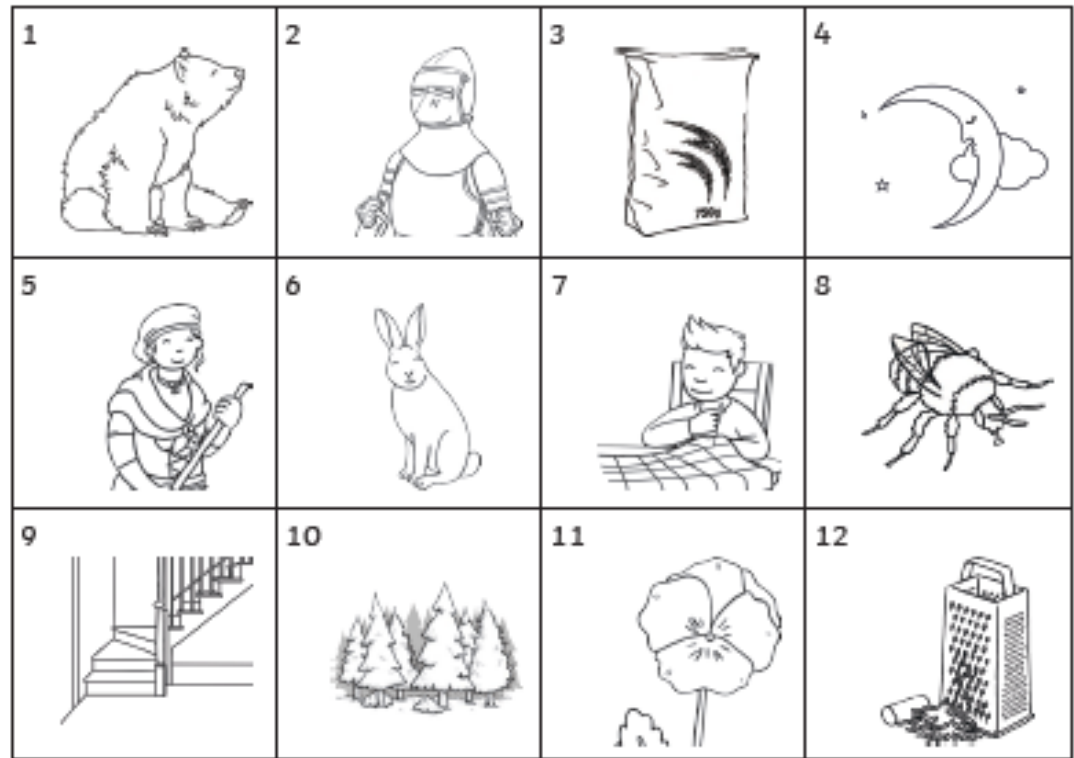

Match the pictures to the words.

Now try this activity.

Match the pictures to the words.
